WOMAN LIVES BUT SHORT TIME AFTER FALL ON BUTCHER KNIFE

Mrs. H. D. Gamble, of Forward Township, Suffers Death From Hemorrhages

ACCIDENT OF UNUSUAL KIND

Was Carrying Knife in Her Hand When She Fell—Throat Cut Dangerously. Several Arteries Being Severed—Rushed to Hospital.

Her throat slashed and arteries severed as a result of having fallen on the sharp blade of a butcher knife she was carrying, Mrs. Elizabeth Gamble, aged 45 years and the wife of H. D. Gamble, of Forward township, died at 10 o'clock at the Memorial hospital, Monongahela Thursday night. The doctor's certificate showed that her death was due to "internal hemorrhages."

Mrs. Gamble Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock went to the barnyard at her home to fix some greens. She took with her a sharp butcher knife with which to do the trimming.

There is a sort of gate separating the barnyard and the yard surrounding her home. On her return she was climbing through this passage way when she fell. The knife was in her hand and she fell in such away on the knife that her throat was horribly slashed. A gaping wound was left and blood poured from it. Several arteries SHRDLU SHRDLU

Mrs. Gamble, attempting to staunch the excessive flow of blood with her hand, managed to make her way to her home. Dr. Byers of Webster was hastily summoned. Arriving, he succeeded in preventing the further loss of blood, but internal hemorrhages started. Mrs. Gamble was removed to the Memorial hospital at Monongahela, in a much weakened condition.

Doctors and nurses there were unable to stop the hemorrhages and Mrs. Gamble gradually grew weaker until she died.

Mrs. Gamble is survived by her husband and by one son and one daughter. She was a well known woman. The funeral will be held Sunday at the Webster Methodist Episcopal church. Interment will be in the Round Hill cemetery.

BODY OF MAN FOUND IN RIVER THAT OF JOHN TELAGO OF DONORA

Identification Made Late Thursday—Man Went to Work February 23, Which Was Last Day he Was Seen

Identification was made late Thursday of the body of the man found in the river near the Monessen brewery Thursday morning. The body is that of John Telago, aged 42 years, of Donora.

Telago went to work on February 23 at the Page mill at Monessen and was the last seen of him. It is supposed he was drowned while crossing the river. Telago has a wife and family living in Europe. The body was recovered in the Bellview cemetery back of Monessen on Thursday afternoon.

DAIRYMEN READY TO BEGIN BATTLE

Meeting Held by Milk Dealers of This County in Pittsburgh With Attorneys

OPPOSING RATE INCREASE

Representatives of dairymen residing in Washington county and neighboring districts that would be similarly affected were in Pittsburgh Thursday for a conference with their attorneys relative to the fight being made against the proposed increase of rates in milk by railroads.

As a result of the steps taken by the dairymen to carry their cases to the Pennsylvania public service commission, the railroads have announced that the increase which was to have gone into effect on April 15 had been postponed to June 1. The advance proposed by the Pennsylvania, Wabash, Montour and Baltimore & Ohio companies is from seven to 14 cents on five-gallon cans.

County Agriculturalist J. M. McKee of the Agricultural bureau of this county which is aiding the dairymen in their fight and Robert Bamford of Midway, conferred with attorneys in Pittsburgh Thursday. They were informed that the public service commission's sitting in Pittsburgh might be delayed by the unexpected action of Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh in recalling appointments made by his predecessor.

It was expected the case of the dairymen would come up during the first or second week of May when the commission was scheduled originally to be in Pittsburgh. The dairymen and their attorneys however, will commence next week to prepare an effort to convince the members of the board that the increase proposed is unjust and discriminates, thus being prepared for any emergency.

WAYNESBURG RAVAGED BY $112,000 BLAZE

Fire That Destroys Nearly One Square of Business Blocks and Residences Starts From Sparks in Blacksmith Shop

Waynesburg was visited by one of the worst conflagrations in its history Thursday night and early this morning, the loss totaling about $112,000, according to the latest estimate. The fire started in the blacksmith shop of Inghram Bros., in Franklin street shortly before midnight, and before it could be controlled had spread through one square of the business section, sweeping before it business buildings and residences.

Sparks from the blacksmith shop blaze started a fire in the livery barn of H. B. Fonner, adjoining and 15 horses were burned to death, besides wagons, buggies and carriages.

Harrison Johnson, who slept on the second floor of the livery barn was awakened by the smoke and jumped from a second-story window to a stone pavement and received a broken arm and probable internal injuries. The losses are:

Inghram Bros., two blacksmith shops and two livery barns, $50,000; J. R. Summerville, monument works, $10,000; H. B. Fonner, livery, $10,000; J. P. Pollock, livery barn, $10,000; J. A. Maple, liveryman's $5,000; Elm sisters residence, $5,000; Messenger Building owned by Congressman Thomas S. Crago and others, $5,000; Greene County Telephone company, $2,500; South Penn Telephone Company, $2,500; J. D. Burns residence, $5,000; Walter Stephens, restaurant, $2,000; William Hunt, barber shop, $1,000; Wycoff & Wycoff, office building and effects, $1,000; Law Building, owned by J. W. Wray, $1,000; Dr. C. W.

Sproul, horse and buggy burned in Fonner livery stable, $500; A. B. Donnelly & Son law office flooded, $500; Waynesburg Armory, windows broken, water, $500. Other persons suffered losses from $100 to $500.

The only building in the square not burned or partially burned was the stone residence of Eugene Inghram in Franklin street. When the volunteer firemen arrived they endeavored to save horses from the Fonner livery, but were unsuccessful.

Robert Barnett a volunteer fireman while in the stable after a horse was overcome by heat and fell to the floor unconscious. Another fireman stumbled over his body and carried him to safety.

Mrs. Bertha Leonard, while running from her home nearby, was knocked over by a fireman who accidentally ran against her and her right arm was broken. Owen Stockdale a fireman was cut by flying glass.

The firemen were hampered by a weak pressure of water. The fire spread with such rapidity that the few streams of water the firemen were able to play on the flames were unavailing. The fire traveled both directions from Franklin and Washington streets, to alleys in the rear. Lawyers in the office buildings suffered considerable loss through valuable papers being damaged or destroyed.

Residents in the burned district fled from their homes in their nightclothes without having time to save any of their valuables. They were cared for by nearby residents.

MURDER AT LECKRONE LAID TO BLACK HAND

Wealthy Italian Shot Down in Cold Blood—His Body Riddled With Iron Slugs—Said to Have Resigned From the Mafia.

As a direct result it is said of his alleged resignation five years ago as a member of the Black Hand Society, Frank Manfredi, aged 40, a wealthy Italian merchant of Masontown, was murdered at Leckrone Thursday afternoon. His body was riddled with iron slugs. County detective and a posse of citizens, with bloodhounds are scouring the surrounding country for the murderer.

Manfredi was driving in a wagon when the shooting occurred. County detectives believe that the murderer hid behind a fence and when Manfredi approached on his wagon his assailant discharged a shotgun, which was found near the scene of the tragedy. Two empty shells were found in the shotgun. The authorities say that Manfredi received threatening letters following his alleged resignation from the lawless society. Twice before Manfredi was wounded by unknown men who sought his life.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR BUILDING NEW SCHOOL

Scenery Hill Man Gets Award of Work in West Bethlehem Township Old Nichols School House to be Replaced by Commodious Structure.

The school directors of West Bethlehem township have let the contract for the erection of a new school building to replace the Nichols school which does not meet the requirements of the district. The building will cost almost $7,000 and will be of brick construction.

The general contract was given to Joseph Wise of Scenery Hill the brick roofing to C. W. Phillips of Washington. The building will contain two rooms on the ground floor with commodious hall and cloak rooms and will be modern in all departments. The foundation will be of concrete and the building in general will be heated by hot air.

The building will be completed by August 1 in time for the opening of the school term. C. C. Compton of Donora is the architect.

Outside of the contest features there will be musical and literary numbers of merit.

MOTORCYCLISTS BEFORE BURGESS

Overspeeding is Charge Against Three Who Are Given Hearing Thursday

ONE NEGLECTS TO BLOW HORN

Three motor cyclists ran amuck of the speed laws in Charleroi within the last two days, and Thursday evening were before Burgess S. L. Woodward to answer to their misdeeds. They were accused of overspeeding up Fifth street. One, from Monessen was accused of not blowing his horn at the corner of Fifth street and McKean avenue, in spite of the fact that Chief of Police C. W. Albright and Policeman James Murphy were standing on the corner looking at him.

The three men who had their hearings Thursday night were R. Franki, and Fred W. Reeves of Charleroi and M. J. Layman of Monessen. The three were discharged, with the announcement ringing in their ears that if arrested again they would be heavily fined.

Weltner Stock and Fixtures Purchased by the Gilmore Drug Company

MAY REMOVE ALL FROM HERE

Various Owners Have Been in Charge Since First Company Opened. Store—Paul R. Nutt, Fred Allison and Weltners Recent Owners.

For the first time in years the oldest established pharmacy in Charleroi is entirely closed down and may be within a few days a thing of the past. This is the pharmacy now known as Weltner's pharmacy, which has been sold within the last day or two to the Gilmore Drug company, of Pittsburgh. This firm took charge today through its representatives and unless they dispose of the store shortly will remove the stock.

The pharmacy was opened about 25 years ago, when the town was in its infancy. It was opened by a company formed by doctors and a man by the name of S. Edmunds was placed in charge. The store changed hands various times since it was started and owners at various periods within the last several years included Paul R. Nutt, Fred Allison and the Weltners, Ed G. Weltner, of Uniontown, operated the pharmacy, a time and then it passed into the hands of his father, C. W. Weltner, the late owner.

Through the misfortunes of others tied up in Fayette county financial affairs, Mr. Weltner was driven in to bankruptcy and the store was sold to satisfy creditors. The Charleroi Savings and Trust company acted as trustees.

MILLION DOLLAR RUSSIAN ORDER FOR PITTSBURG

Receipt of a $1,000,000 order for air brakes for the Russian government was announced by the Westinghouse Airbrake company officials at Pittsburgh Thursday. It is said that the Russian branches of the Westinghouse company are so busy with the manufacture of war materials that it was found impossible to fill the orders abroad. Westinghouse workers now on half time will resume full time employment immediately to turn out the 17,500 airbrakes required at the earliest possible time.

THE "TYPHOID FLY"

Whoever is responsible for requiring high school students to call the common fly the typhoid fly, instead of the housefly, has done an equivalently practical thing. Firmly impression the name "typhoid fly" upon the people and half the battle for fly expression will have been won.

By entertaining the typhoid fly
you have been harboring a potential murderer in your home. You have been exposing yourself, your children, your entire family, in fact, and the visitors who come to an assassin's nearly as successful a prisoner, as Lucrezia Borgia was; and he's there today. Even while you read these lines he may be at work.

Glance up from the page to where your baby crawls in the sunshine or slumbers in his crib. Is there a buzzing fly upon his chubby cheek or hovering above his ruddy parted lips? Destroy it and lose not a moment in the doing, says Dr. Herbert D. Pearce in Good Housekeeping.

During countless ages the fly has been tolerated, smiled at, brushed away gently or slapped at violently, according to the temper of his victim.
He has been sung in jingles by minor poets who might have been better employed, acclaimed as a comedian for the amusement of infants, used as a vehicle for the paragrapher's shafts of wit, even eulogized by pseudoscientists as a benefactor of the human race without which we were doomed to extinction. And all during the years he has been indus-triously at work killing us right and left.

Dub him the "typhoid fly" and even the most careless of us will buy a "swatter."

PROSPERITY BURSTING

According to the news dispatches prosperity is about to emerge from its long hibernation. Prophecies that the country is on the eve of an era of a general revival industrial have been renewed in eastern centers, following on the heels of the announcement of Pennsylvania Lines' expansion. The policy of the Pennsylvania Lines as announced involves the expenditure of about $18,000,000, itself an augury of development, says the New Castle Herald.

There are signs that there is a better feeling over the country, as evidenced by the rise of the securities market. It does look as if the shell was about to burst and that the incubus that bound us to a greater or lesser degree, depending upon local conditions, was about to be cast off.

There is a better feeling at any rate, and that will do much. A purely psychological prosperity will be better than none at all, because it begets itself and ultimately will approach the genuine.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"A game warden heard that a restaurant was serving game out of season. He disguised himself with a false beard visited the place and ordered a pheasant, says an exchange.

"The pheasant, delicately high with Roquefort cheese, as all good pheasants should be, was served to the game warden and he devoured it to the last morsel, at the same time inflicting severe punishment on a bottle of rare old Burgundy—for the stain of course paid for all.

"At the end of his feast the game warden summoned the proprietor and said:

"I arrest you sir in the name of the law!"

"The proprietor's mouth opened in astonishment. He swallowed two or three times then he gasped:

"—What for?"

"For serving me a pheasant out of season," said the game warden.

"A look of relief appeared on the proprietor's face.

"Oh," he said, "that wasn't pheasant. It was crow."

A crowd had gathered around the lucky male. Coasting and curses and clouts had been in vain.

"Beat him on the head," said Louis Rastus.

They did and the mule started off
on a run.

"You certainly do understand mules," said a bystander to the old negro.

"Yes, sah," he replied. "You see,
mules have more brains than most people think and you must appeal to their intellect."

Empty Compliments.

Fifty years or more ago Sir Harry Smith after whose wife Ladysmith was named, was governor of Cape Colony, and led a number of campaigns against the Kaffirs. Returning from a particularly lively one, he held a review of his troops, who were in a most dillapidated condition—barefooted, ragged and half starving.

When the time came for him to say a few words he lavished praise upon them, dwelling upon their bravery, endurance and even upon their soldierlike appearance.

This last compliment was too much for the patience of the old color-sergeant. He stepped forward—uttered and unkept—saluted most respectfully and then said:

"Begging your pardon, Sir 'Arry, we don't want no gaudiness; we want boots."

This outspoken criticism was fortunately taken in good part and shortly afterward the men got their boots.—

Why this man bought a Remington Junior Typewriter

"I have been investigating several of the recent makes of machines, seeking for one of simple construction for ordinary manuscript and letter writing. I was nearly ready to buy a machine of another make when I just happened to see for the first time the Remington Junior, and found it to be the very thing I wanted; and that was a typewriter built simpler and not incumbered with fixtures not needed for writing ordinary manuscript or letters."

The man who wrote this is the postmaster of a small Southern town. He is only one of thousands who have recently bought a Remington Junior. But his reasons apply to everybody—they apply to YOU.

The Remington Junior is our latest product and the latest idea in typewriting.

It is strictly a high-grade machine.

It has the Remington Name, the Remington Guarantee, the Remington Quality—everything Remington except weight and bulk.

"A Simplified Remington" describes it exactly.

And its price is Concrete Work a Specialty.

NOTICE—Avail yourself of the opportunity to join the Concrete Club which offer will be open from April first. A splendid chance for property holders to save money. Any person having over 500 sq. ft. of sidewalk to be laid can join this club. The larger the club the more reasonable the price per sq. ft. You who have work to be done help form the club by saying to your next door neighbor, "Let us join the Concrete Club for a cheaper rate."

By this method, the work being more systematically handled, the concrete being all mined by machine and the latest and best methods of the Concrete and Cement age being used, the sidewalk presents a more uniform appearance, the work can be more reasonably done and will give better service.

As much care should be taken in making sidewalks as in the paving of streets. Don't miss this opportunity. Office 616 Long Alley, rear of Parke Trading Stamp building. P. O. box 376.

SECOND GET-TOGETHER MEN'S MEETING HELD

Men of Methodist Episcopal Church Gather Thursday Evening—Short Talks Made by Various Ones and Musical Program is Rendered.

The second "Get-Together" meeting of the men of the Methodist Episcopal church was held in the Sunday school room of the church Thursday evening attended by about 50 men. Thomas Warrenford was the chairman of the meeting, being the chairman of the committee which arranged the meeting. The other members of the committee were H. J. Booth and W. D. Pollock.

A program was rendered that had talks by various men and violin selections by Guy Michener as chief features. Accompaniments for Master Michener were played by his sister, Audrey Michener. Victrola selections were given.

The committee to arrange for the next meeting was selected consisting of Prof. T. L. Pollock, Prof. S. R. Grimm, Prof. J. Russell Carroll and Roy Lutes. Monthly meetings are held by the men of the church.

MRS LESLIE CARTER TO APPEAR AT PALACE THEATRE

Mrs. Leslie Carter the well known actress will be featured in the six act drama "Du Barry" at the Palace Theatre Monday. The picture is one of the best ever released by the Alliance program company. It is adapted from the story of the same name. In this production Mrs. Carter will wear some of the costliest gowns ever shown in motion pictures. They were designed especially for this picture at Mrs. Carter's establishment in Paris.

CENTERVILLE BOROUGH TO HAVE TWO PRECINCTS

Court Appoints Commissioners to Arrange Details—Reasons Set Forth in Well Signed Petition.

In a decree handed down by the court upon the petition to divide Centerville borough into two precincts Charles I. Dorsey, Jonas Emery and Mahlon Lincon have been appointed commissioners to make a division of the borough into two election precincts if they think it advisable to do so. They will make a return to the court of a plot or draft of the proposed new election districts with a recommendation of the place where the election should be held in each of said precincts. They will also recommend suitable persons for the election board. Their return shall be made on the first day of the May term of court. The petition for the division is largely signed.

It was made to appear to the court that this borough is made up of a small village and a large amount of agricultural land and that the population along the eastern side of the borough, fronting on the Monongahela river is rapidly increasing; further that those who live in that locality have to travel a distance of four miles or more to the present place of voting and many of them are coal miners, who have no means of conveyance.
